"The beat of the pahu and the heartfelt expression of mele remind us that Hawai'i's indigenous culture is very much alive."

Superintendent Cindy Orlando

Try your hand at Hawaiian crafts

Play Hawaiian music and games

"Talk story" with Hawaiian kūpuna (elders)

Weave a coconut basket and lauhala bracelet

Make a feather kahili, a traditional lei, a ball and loop game, and begin a quilt

Taste traditional foods...kalua pig, taro, sweet potato, sugar cane, breadfruit, 'awa, and more

Watch skilled practitioners demonstrate their art

Learn how to fish, throw net, build canoe, craft drums, do lomilomi massage, beat kapa, carve wood, use plants as medicine, make ti leaf cape and sandals, stamp with bamboo, craft a Hawaiian sled, decorate gourds, weave a lauhala hat, sew a feather lei, create a native garden, and plant dryland taro

Bring sunscreen, ground mat, water, a hat and rainjacket. A Hawaiian food lunch will be available for purchase at the camp's cafeteria. For more information call 985-6011 or go to www.nps.gov/havo
